Michelle Dobish

BESS systems should not be near schools, neighborhood, communities...anywhere near a population. The risks due to the noise and fire is too extreme. Our children are our future...we need to protect them. There are many non-populated areas where BESS are better placed.