Bonnie Godfred

I am concerned that you treat proximity to residents as a defining condition and do not assume that proposals will address this properly. Washington has a lot of remote land that could be used for these facilities without threat to our residents. Thank you