

Anonymous Anonymous

Recycling services should not be provided by garbage haulers. It's a huge conflict of interest to involve them, plus most of them don't care about the quality of recyclables collected, they just see it as another thing they're being paid to collect.