

Ann Keane

I feel so primitive to contaminate our water source of all well being to fertilize with our waste that includes bio pharmaceutical. The current drugs taint our pristine eco system and this reflects the increase in immune system breakdown, miscarriages, autism one in 6 now. All are environmentally influenced. Our species is struggling with contaminants. Without our permission, it all ends up in the rivers. Detroit poisoned a whole generation of children with lead.