

Marisa Hendron

Please do not reauthorize the spreading of biosolids on farm and forest land in Mills Canyon. It is unjust and irresponsible to apply poorly studied, poorly tested for chemicals such as PFAS and pharmaceutical metabolites on our state's precious lands. Particularly given that the EPA has documented toxicity in similar sewage by-products, this is a regressive and short-sighted plan to deal with Washington's sewage waste.