

John Barry

I'm a former employee of Grays Harbor Paper and it's my understanding that the property was purchased by a Taiwanese couple. Since they now own the property aren't they responsible for the remaining cleanup and/or remediation, or was there an agreement established, upon purchase of the property, that previous ownership would bear the costs and responsibilities of any and all remaining cleanup?