

Debra Eilers

DOE's determination that widespread application of toxic sludge has "non-significant" impacts is in error. This sludge can contain PFAS, microplastics and other substances harmful to human and ecological health. Please conduct a full, scientific review of the composition of the sludge, its impacts and its application.