

Olympic Environmental Resources (Paul Devine)

The PaintCare program should be a model for this program. The best way to incentivize collectors is to make it so they are encouraged to take as many batteries as possible. The more batteries they take, the more they get paid. Like the PaintCare program.

Also, encourage the program to allocate budget for promotion so residents know when the battery program is in place and how to use it.