

Pamela Wessel-Estes

Please, make sure that there are clear rules and policies for separation of food waste from packaging materials, and requiring both organic matter composting AND material recycling. Allowing for methods that compress packaging and food together serves no purpose other than adding micro plastics into compost, and making packaging materials non-recyclable. Thank you for your consideration of this important rule making.