

AmandaMae Bomar

With expanded producer responsibility (EPR) let's engage the single serve beverage producers to support this program in the form of on-site (grocery store) locations for this recycling programming. This effectively removes the friction. We have learned to bring in our reusable bags for grocery shopping; we can add our empty recyclable beverage containers to this process.