

Juliana Long Corriveau

Please implement a program of this type. I was appalled when I moved to WA after living in OR and CA where recycling is de rigeur, to find that (for such a progressive state) we have nothing. The state of recycling in WA is atrocious; the state does not make it easy for consumers to do the right thing, leading to increased waste in landfills that could easily be avoided, and a corresponding increase in impact to the environment.