

Sharon Grant

Clear information on the kind of containers will be very important, having a graphic would be valuable. Graphics also on what is acceptable and what isn't. Education is key.

Also, enroll local government and media to communicate on a regular basis the value being received by individuals, individual communities and the state. Thank you!