

McKinley MacDoran

Hello,

Continued: from submission 1 on 08/19/2026

To detail the meaning on the "household items" may include

Metals including Brass.

Porcelain, marble,

Glass and crystal marbles,

Crystals,

Concrete,

Rocks,

Diamonds,

Granite,

Stone,

Asphalt,

Gravel,

Brick,

Clay (wet and dry),

Particle board,

Cork-board and cork,

Horsehair and synthetics,

Synthetic fabrics and polyester textiles,

Cotton, fabric and textiles,

Gems (stones),

Acrylic,

Acrylics with gemstones,

Concrete,

Mortar,

Slate,

Laminate,

Quartz,

Tires,

Solar panels and Solar panel parts that do not qualify for e-cycle,

Wind turbines and parts that do not qualify for e-cycle,

Lightening strike rods and parts that do not qualify for e-cycle,

Plastic reusable gasoline cans (plastic and metal),

Spray cans and Aerosol cans Lysol spray cans, Hair spray cans, toilet bowl cleaner spray cans, shaving cream spray cans, spray paint cans, whipped cream cans, deodorant spray cans.

Stained glass; on GL 70 Mixed Glass, GL 71 Clear Glass, GL 72 Green Glass.

Composite (looks like wood/plastic)

Polymers and or composites and or new alloys that exist and or will be created in the future.

Infrastructure that may need to be included with the Recycling Reform Act would be locations near water towers and or adding water towers as new infrastructure (and be compliant with the Clean Water Act) near the public collection sites and the recycling transfer stations, underground storage tanks, and the recycling processing facilities and MRF's.

Thank you.