

Denis Fitzgerald

Last time I checked interstate commerce of oil and gas products is regulated by the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission so once again we have WA state attempting to control things which are outside of its control. Stick to state matters and leave this to the Federal government where it belongs/