

Jennifer Johnston

This is very important because if there is a large earthquake, an oil spill would be catastrophic. We need to be proactive in making sure that a plan to clean up and compensate the area for damage.