

Randi Wilke

I would like to see this opened up to a public hearing so there is greater visibility to the community. What long term environmental impact would this have on our river/waterways and aquatic life such as fish and waterfowl? Please consider including other groups and organizations invested in river health and conservation efforts in to the conversation to discuss this more deeply.