

Dennis Connelly

I am concerned about once clean up starts that the ground surrounding the River may leak hazardous chemicals into the river and environment especially during heavy rains.

Lot of employees in the past were not trained in dealing with hazardous chemicals and may have disposed of them improperly.