

Michelle Burce

I am strongly in favor of this site getting cleaned up and developed into dense housing. The Columbia City neighborhood is a fast-growing urban village, but this particular site on a major transportation corridor has been a major wasted space. I fully support cleaning the site such that it can safely house many new neighbors.