

Ruby Holland

Please support GardnerGlobal in their efforts to clean up toxic sites in Seattle's Communities of Color, in order to build affordable housing on these sites. Communities of Color need both, affordable housing and a toxic free environment, free from cancer and disease causing chemicals. I applaud and appreciate GardnerGlobal for taking this important and necessary first step.

