

Alan Maszk

The Department of Ecology should substitute a new alternative for the current Alternative 6, which would excavate sufficient newly identified locations of contaminated soil to allow a path for Willow Creek to reach Puget Sound, as well as other corrective actions.