

Diona Jaslow

I believe Chevron (Unocal) has responsibility to finish the clean up effort due to the many years they poisoned our land and marsh. They make billions in revenue and can afford to be held ultimately accountable for all costs. It should not be passed onto future land owners.