

Judith Taylor

All the state Ecology Dept ever seems to do is TALK about planning and how they need more time to do develop a plan -- at least that's their history since Rayonier left waterfront property a toxic waste zone, from soil to sediment, 26 years ago. We need and have a right to have the site CLEAN, SAFE and available to Port Angeles residents, workers, and visitors. DO SOMETHING! NOW. PLEASE.