

Marjorie Fields

I look forward to the upcoming meeting in hope of clear information about final cleanup of the Unocal contamination. Cleaning the easy parts and leaving the hard parts after all these years isn't acceptable. Of course it costs more to do it right, but -- in the end -- it usually costs more to do it wrong.