

joe foos

Does WSDOT realize making this property available for any development of any kind would risk greater environmental damage to the marsh and the waterfront ? Does it really have to profit off the sale of the property once cleaned up and purchased from UNOCAL? Can't it consider donating it to Edmonds for the citizens to decide what's the best use of it, being so close to the waterfront and the marsh ?