

Linda Malanchuk-Finnan

What will Ecology and Green Cove do to protect the safety of this site that has arsenic, heavy metals and numerous toxins demonstrated in its reports but which there is no current written plan to ameliorate despite the words of the bodies concerned? If prior reports indicate the presence of severe contaminants, how will Ecology, current stakeholders and future homeowners know when it is "safe" when the party concerned does not include or allude to these conditions?