

David Snipes

In addition to testing the wells, please look into the pond at the northeast end of the main runway. These ponds collect the run off from the main runway and taxiways. Nothing seems to grown there.