

Paul Vance

Under Order, VII Work to be performed, consider incorporating a requirement to ensure seasonality is considered in the site assessment and remedial investigation since under soil water level and flow may change with the seasons and specific seasonal conditions may be necessary to transport any hazardous material present outside the landfill and impact the environment and wildlife deleteriously.