

Chad Anonymous

How dangerous is it to live near the contaminate site of Stewart House? My girlfriend and I live right across from the burned down buildings. I did not realize there were possible toxins on the site until I received the "Toxic Clean Up" mail from the Dept. of Ecology this week.

Is there any reason for concern for people like us who frequently walk past / live around these buildings?