

Sarah Ellison

It is unconscionable that we would allow a company to profit for decades and then shirk full responsibility for the impacts of their profiteering. An incomplete job cleaning up now will fall on the taxpayers later, allowing irresponsible business owners to abscond with ill gotten profits. Requires a complete clean up that restores Ennis Creek fully and completely. SL5 is the only acceptable option.