

Ken Williams

Cleaning up a hazardous waste site does not mean cleaning only a portion. Do the job right, clean it up completely as in option 5. The Mill contaminated the entire site and should be required to clean the entire site even if taxpayer help is needed. Why risk long term continued contaminants in the soil.