

Toyia Hatten

The only acceptable option for cleaning up the Rayonier mill site in Port Angeles is option 5, removing all contaminated materials from the site. The people and wildlife in this community (along with the body of water the mill is situated on) all deserve to have the property cleaned up completely.