

Danielle Holt

ALL contaminated materials must be removed. Do not leave toxic waste behind in an ecologically sensitive area. If the environment and local residents aren't reason enough, consider this is in a location that could be used to great community benefit including increased tourism were it safe to use.