

Walt Boyes

The only cleanup method the entire Port Angeles community supports is to do 100% remediation and remove ALL of the toxic material on the site, remove the creosote soaked piles, and repair the damage to Ennis Creek. The Rayonier Mill Site is located in a central area and if not remediated completely, it will forever stall development of the waterfront of Port Angeles.