

Anne Pelayo

Dump on the small town and then do a bare minimum leaving the consequences on a small rural working town. America at its worst. Please do a proper clean up in the proper timeframe. We've been waiting 25 years and this property is a prominent property in this town. We can and should do better than this. The clean up should allow this key property to be developed and not just covered up.