

Susan Adams

Vancouver lake is becoming a health risk. As a competitive rower who hungers for and thrives on bodies of water for both exercise and serenity, I plead with authorities for please consider prioritizing clean up of Vancouver Lake. Additionally there are now threats to endangered species that are vital to keeping our ecosystem alive for all.