

Amelia Carter

Vancouver lake is a treasure! Countless rowers, dragon boaters, kayakers, paddle boarders and fishermen love and use the lake. It is home to a variety of birds including bald eagles and great blue herons. The sunrises and sunsets make you pause and give thanks to God above. Please help protect and save our beautiful lake.