

Hilary Swain

I write as a rower who loves Vancouver Lake as a premier venue for rowing regattas. Some of the best and biggest regattas in the Northwest for masters and junior rowers are held on Vancouver Lake, and I hope that continues. Milfoil and blue-green algae blooms threaten the viability of the lake for rowing.