

Pat Freeman

Vancouver Lake needs help. As our area population grows, so does the recreational needs of the lake. Presently, after the spring runoff, the lake doesn't have enough water flow to prevent toxic E. coli levels and algae blooms. Just this year, a western regional boating event had to be quickly moved due to toxins in the lake.

You need to help save this lake!