

Micah Berry

Vancouver Lake should be a priority for remediation. The area is a needed recreational and natural area for many individuals and organizations.

Vancouver lake has many issues that the DOE can help with. Invasive species, turbidity, and algae all need immediate attention.