

Anita Bigelow

I write as a rower who cherishes Vancouver Lake as a premier venue for rowing regattas. Some of the best and biggest regattas in the Northwest for masters and junior rowers are held on Vancouver Lake, or have been. Milfoil and blue-green algae blooms threaten the viability of the lake for rowing. And for paddling and swimming.