

Sharon Wyle

This is a water playground in our backyard. Our family swims and kayaks all over that lake. However, it is so frustrating that we can only enjoy it when the water is ok. This year I was on the planning committee for a fundraiser for Vancouver veterans assistance center... so many involved..but had to cancel because of water quality. Huge loss to community.