

Jenna Carr

Please consider cleaning up Vancouver Lake in a big way. It is dangerous to public health every summer, but not only that it is dangerous to at-risk fish species. I learned to row on this lake, and it breaks my heart to come back to visit, walk down the dock and see dead fish floating alongside it because the lake is so polluted. This is the only lake Vancouver has, and it is a shame that it isn't treated better.