

Megan Fries

As a life long resident of Vancouver I feel that the cleanup of Vancouver Lake should be a top priority. It's the first lake I ever waded and swam in as a kid. The park is already so lovely, it's a shame that the lake is mostly un-usable each summer. I feel like the lake could be a great asset for Vancouver, but right now it just seems forgotten.