

Joe Querin

The lack of a swift and proper cleanup at Vancouver lake raises my concerns of vulnerability of the lake to degradation and potential risks to public health. As a person who spent much of my youth participating in sports and recreation on the lake, it is in my opinion imperative that the lake is clean, safe, and usable.