

Holly Graham

Our sound has been violated and abused in times past, creating toxic environments for those living on or near the water as well as the creatures in and around it. We cannot allow Cooke Aquaculture the leeway to install and perpetuate the environmental abuses that are inherent in growing penned salmon. Please refuse this newest attack on the sound and the waters we all depend upon for livelihoods, recreation, food, and beauty.