

Lance Stewardson

Anti aquaculture movements are not based in fact or in line with scientific information. These groups condemn many First Nations in BC to poverty by using misinformation and fear to shut down their partnerships with research projects. Save wild salmon and farm, you wouldn't expect the wild cow population to sustain the world's need for beef.