

Mary Hermsen

I believe to make America great again that we must first produce our own seafood any product and keep it close to home. Get American back to American made items.