

Dexter Brown

Deny this permit unequivocally - all Puget Sound salmon are endangered, and commercial pen inevitable escapement could render our fish extinct in a matter of a few years. This company will always do the least to protect our waters and their past history of neglect and profit only motive will destroy what's left of this fragile resource that id barely hanging on without this.