

ART PETERSON

I am totally opposed to Cooke Aquaculture's request for a NPDES permit modification to raise steelhead.

In addition I am opposed to any further use of Puget Sound waters and other Washington State marine waters for net production of fish. As an 80 year Washington resident I have been extremely concerned about the health and quality of our Marine waters and believe net production of fish has damaged the waters over time.