

Joey Shondell

Aquaculture in the NW is devastating. We have seen time and time again the effect it has on wild populations. Here in Kansas, aquaculture can even be deadly to native fish. On Mud Creek in Lawrence, KS some escapee white perch made their way into the Kansas River Watershed and decimated populations of native fish. Please stop this awful practice